

Strater J Crowfoot

Director at Large

Strater Crowfoot is currently the Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of Indian Oil and Gas Canada (IOGC). Prior to being at IOGC, Strater was a Board Member with the National Energy Board of Canada. Further, Mr. Crowfoot served 5 terms in public office as the Head Chief of the Blackfoot (Siksika Nation). As well Mr. Crowfoot was the Chairman of the Indian Taxation Advisory Board, now known as the First Nation's Tax Commission.

Strater has been involved with youth development and sports serving as a Boy Scout leader and for many years coaching in community and school sports. He also participated in various running activities such as 10K races, (1/2) Marathons, Marathons, Ultra Marathons and Iron Man events. He leads an active life style cycling to work when weather permits and engaging with his growing family.

Strater Crowfoot has been married to Ellen Cook (Akwesasne Mohawk) for 41 years. They have 6 children and 14 grandchildren. He graduated in 1985 with a Master of Business Administration from Brigham Young University.